PRESS RELEASE:

For Immediate Release

NEWPORT BEACH, CA, March 22, 2021 – Dūcere Global Business School, together with the TuitionManager.com, announced a new partnership to offer Ducere scholarships and management of tuition reimbursement to hundreds of companies.

Everything companies and employees need to manage their tuition reimbursement benefit is now at their fingertips on one clear dashboard including affordable, flexible online degrees including Ducere's MBAs and BAs from University of Wales Trinity St. David and The University of East London.

Dūcere students are taught by a network of over 250 global leaders & innovators, ranging from former Presidents and Prime Ministers to Nobel Prize winners and heads of the UN and CIA. The applied learning, work-relevant, student experience offered by Dūcere is designed to keep the modern learner in mind; students have the flexibility to study while working and only take relevant courses that meet their industry and career objectives, 100% online, and at never-before-seen tuition.

Typical USA tuition reimbursement participation is less than 4% according to published studies because companies simply don't make it visible enough and/or employees don't see the value or relevance of degrees that don't match their careers.

"The team-up of Ducere and TuitionManager.com now puts flexible, 100% online business-relevant degrees within reach. Both HR and the employee can easily find, apply, enroll and manage any tuition reimbursement process. We're thrilled to be in great company with dozens of leading universities and in front of top companies in TuitionManager.com", said Ducere CEO and Founder, Mat Jacobson.

The TuitionManager platform allows companies to provide state-of-the-art human resource software to improve transparency, operational efficiency, and valuable business insights through fast, accurate reporting. Currently, there are more than 60 companies from industries including healthcare and insurance activity utilizing TuitionManager to help companies and employees find higher education solutions.

"Since we already have more than fifty colleges and universities in the TuitionManager platform we were honored to add the prestige of Ducere's programs with The University of Wales and The University of East London, bringing more than 300 years of legacy along with an award-winning digital student experience," said Carolyn Mattock, MBA, Senior Product Manager of TuitionManager.com.

Ducere's programs have been named "The Most Innovative MBA" by TheAustralian.com and continue to be recognized by The BBB, US Congress, and more. Graduates and MBA projects within Ducere MBA programs include Nissan Motor Co., PwC, KMPG, LinkedIn, The Red Cross, Qantas Airlines and many other Fortune 500 brands.
